An Indication

Achievement was the major mark of the Tiger pride. Many types of achievement existed on campus. Just making it through the school year without many problems was a big accomplishment.

Trying to find a spot in the lunch line was a feat in itself. There were so many students, the lunch lines were full-to-crowded during both lunches. When we looked at the size of the lunch lines, we began to wonder if the cafeteria food was so bad after all.

Due to the crunch of freshmen, trying to get to our classes took forever. Finally someone developed a plan. To get into a building we were to use a certain entrance, to leave, we were to use another. Nobody ever found out if the plan had worked or not, because nobody could determine which entrance was to be which.

Receiving good grades was an achievement some of us hoped for. Attaining proper grades was very important to most seniors because it allowed them to receive certain scholarships. Good marks also looked good on their college transcripts.

Competition was strong between us. Even though our football team started out on the wrong foot, they approached every game willing to fight. None of their games was an easy battle. They played extremely hard during every game. Outside of sports, competition was also mighty. Senior girls and guys competed for Girl and Boy of the Year which was a very high honor. Seniors also competed for Homecoming Queen and Backwards King.

Many of us studied to achieve good report cards. Sometimes the homework seemed never-ending. Others emphasized on achievement in their social life. All of us were interested in establishing success in some area of achievement.

The thirty top junior girls achieved the honor of being the 1980-81 Ivy Chain.

Concentrating deeply, Chris Gibson reads one of the many articles covered in C.P.I.

Observing New Pacts

This couple makes the difficult decision of what to eat. ◀

Mr. Reeves, Adele, Mr. Mercer, and Mr. Simpson prove at the football game, that teachers can become friends as easily as students. ▶

During the span of the year, we developed and formed many relationships. These relationships grew between both the faculty and the students. Students were able to talk to teachers about difficulties in class subjects or for advice on personal problems. With numerous students and teachers having no sixth period, there was the advantage of an extra hour to talk.

Students formed many friendships. From these relationships came many fads, activities, and memorable events. Also from these relationships came many varieties of social groups on campus. Great numbers could be seen through the midst of the "fog" by South Hall, South Quad, and on the field of play.

Involvement in afterschool sports brought many different kinds of students together. Many close friendships were derived from association with sports. The closeness and unity of these teams seemed like a second family. Chaffey served as our second home, since much time was spent practicing and working out.

For meeting new people, classtime was the perfect opportunity. Having partners in class introduced many students to fellow classmates. Rallies and assemblies brought students together. This provided time for the different classes to meet and represent their class by taking part in the class yell.

School activities enabled us to create new bonds with people or an individual. Backwards dances provided a chance for a girl to ask that "special someone" out. Football games offered a perfect time for friends to talk and have a good time. One of our fondest memories was going to Friday night games huddled together in the stands. No matter how cold it was, nothing could keep us away! Meeting new people was easy at football games. We all held one same interest, cheering Chaffey to victory!

After football games, the fun had just begun! The excitement of the game carried over through the rest of the night. At times, friends enjoyed themselves so much that the police had to be called in. Such was the case at Carl's Jr. With numerous people at Carl's, the place was packed! Police were needed to maintain traffic and make sure we ordered food inside, instead of walking through the drive-thru.

Distinctive Traits

Many incidents have occurred over the past months that we will never forget, whether we want to or not. The biggest change was the absence of the lockers. For most people, having to carry all those books was a chore. As the year progressed, backpacks and book bags seemed to become heavier and heavier.

One of the most noticeable differences was the marked increase in freshmen. It was like attempting to climb the Swiss Alps just to get to our classes. At times our campus appeared as crowded as Disneyland.

With the omission of sixth period, practically all class sizes were increased. Instead of being in a class with 30 people, we were placed in classrooms that were full-to-bursting. A lot of classes were dropped from the program. The absence of a speech program was greatly felt. A choral program was offered, but many students dropped out due to the fact of an off-campus teacher.

Since our enrollment increased, more students were coming to school by bus. Most bus students had to be at the bus stop by 6:00 a.m. Most of us were just rolling out of bed at that time. Students were bussed here all the way from Etiwanda; that is why they had to leave so early. The increase of busses also caused new traffic problems on Fourth street.

Through all of the physical changes, we came out okay. We suffered a lot, but we received only a few scratches the entire year.

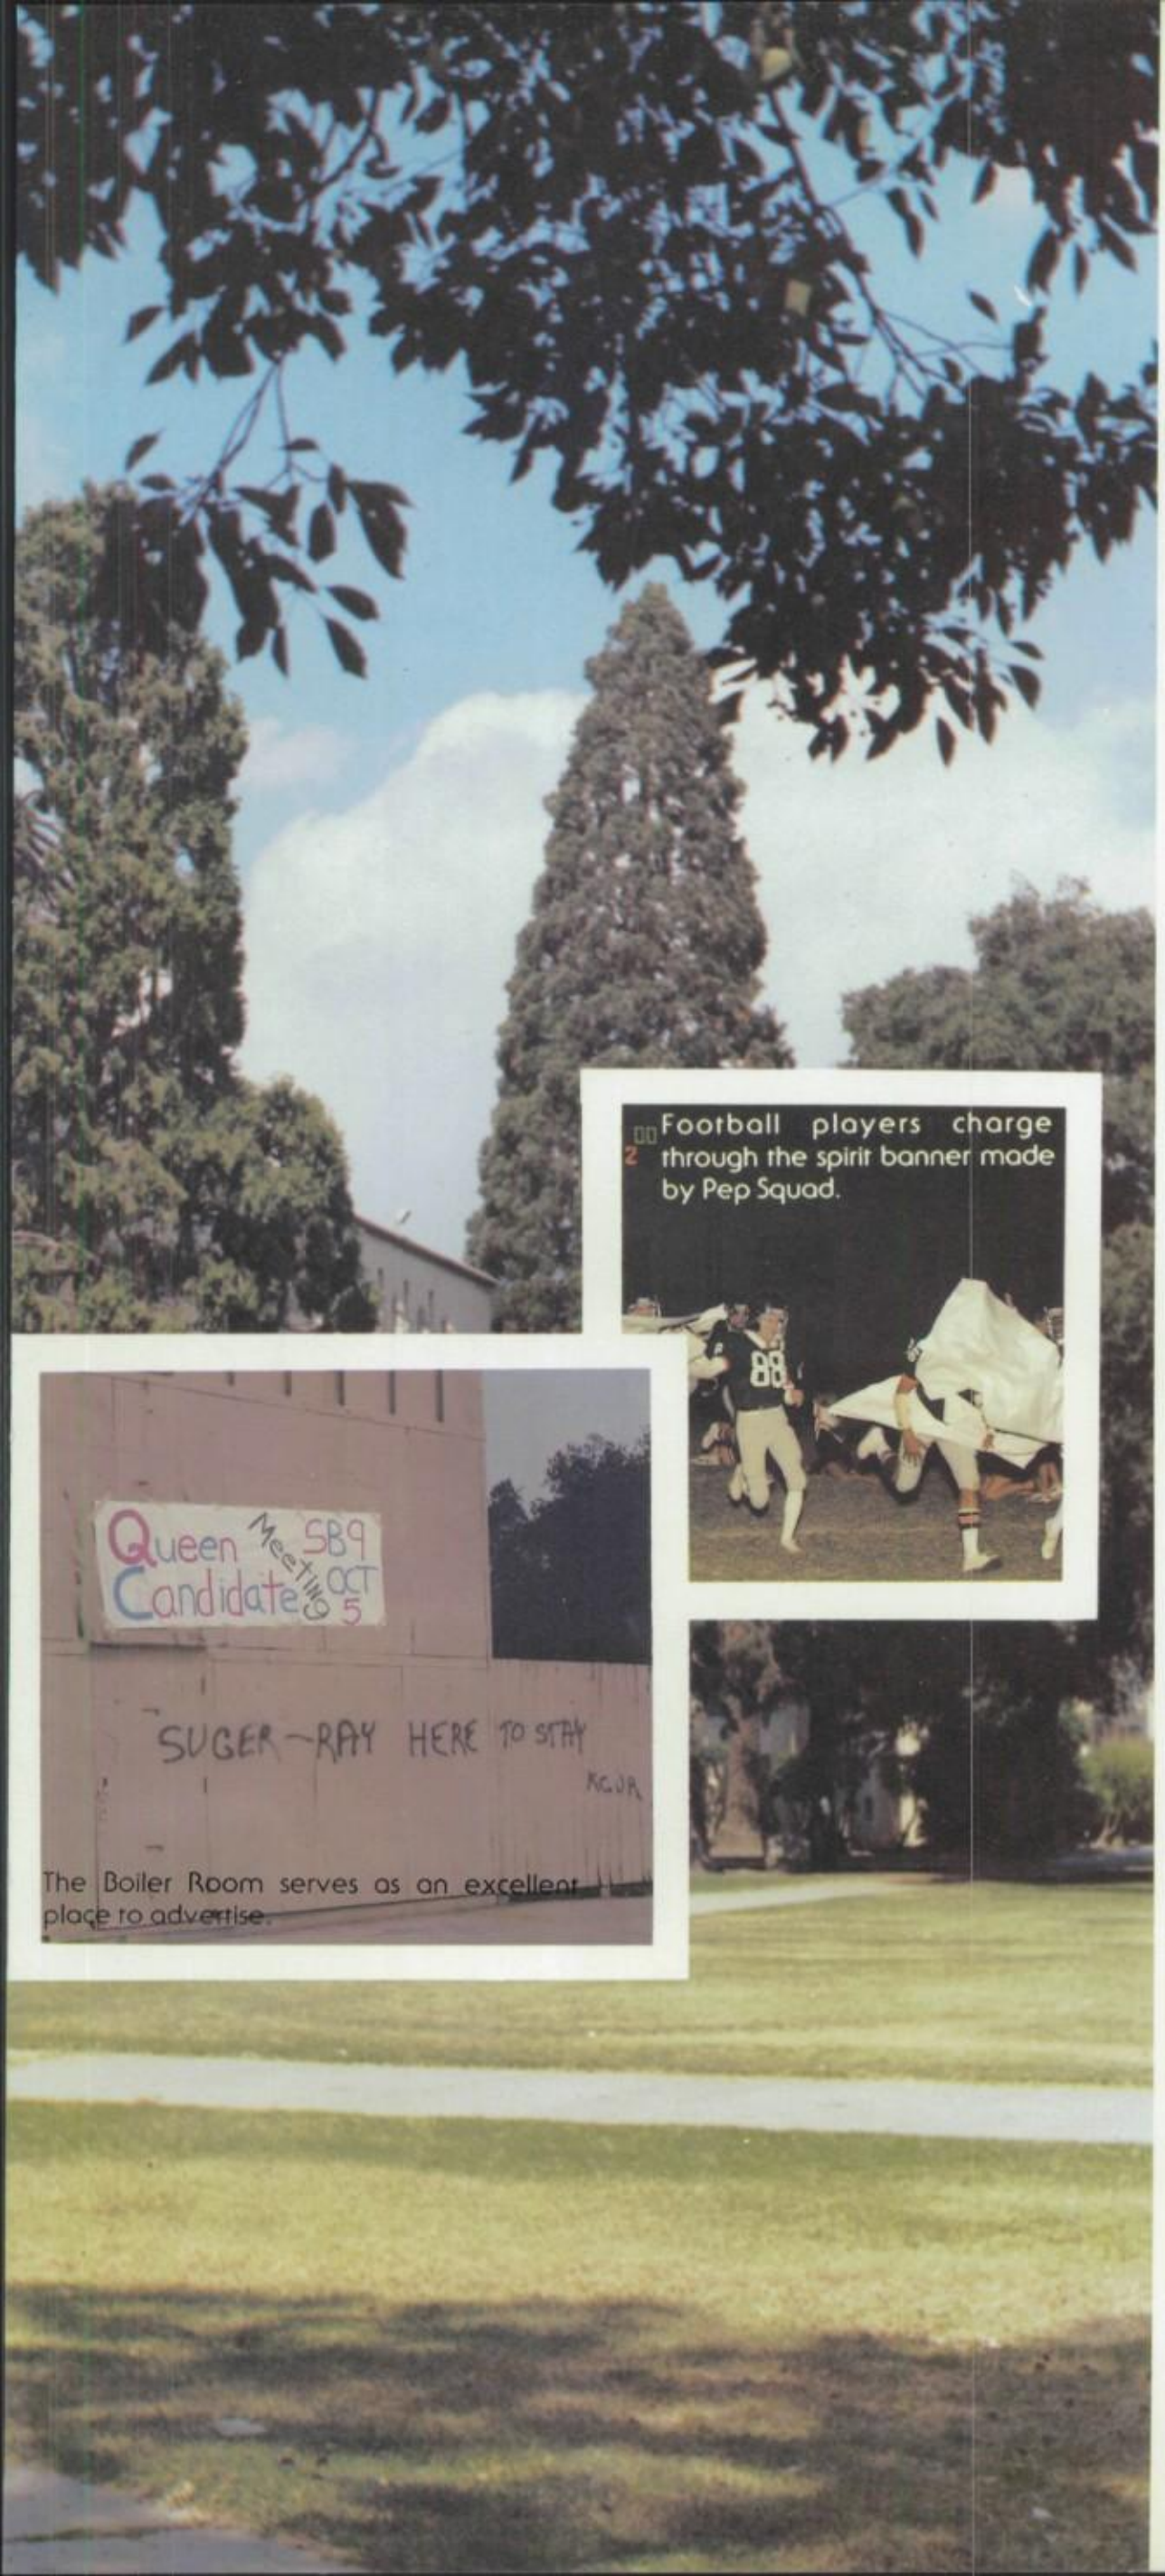
One of the many posters advertises school events.



Football players charge through the spirit banner made by Pep Squad.

The Boiler Room serves as an excellent place to advertise.

A good portion of our school year was spent writing. All one had to do was to look across campus. All of the posters that were plastered everywhere were one indication of our written talents. If anyone wanted to advertise the best place was the boiler room. We were allowed to hang posters on the boiler room, but it was against the law to paint on it. A fine of $2,000.00 was charged to anyone caught painting graffiti on the boiler room. Because of all the past graffiti, this building is said to have at least a thickness of one foot of paint.

Seniors spent most of their time filling out the applications for scholarships and college entrance. Each senior eagerly awaited to see what scholarships were being offered. Most suffered the hardship of finding out that they hadn't received the award. Others joyfully accepted their honor for being a good student.

Old desks were a part of making our mark. Signatures from 20 years ago could be found in most classrooms. Clubs who sold items during lunches, used a folding table that had more graffiti on it than the boiler room.

Since signing up for the draft is mandatory, most male seniors could be seen at the local post offices filling out their draft registration. Some did it enthusiastically, while others did it with grim looks on their faces.

Sophomores and juniors were seen at the Department of Motor Vehicles signing up for their driver's licenses. It was great to see the look of joy on their faces the day they received their licenses. For some of us, it was a day to stay off the roads.

of Burden

Little Lisa is the best way to get a smile from the crowd.

Even though the football team performed as true Tigers the turnout of Tiger fans was not up to par. ▲

Many things have changed over the last year. The main subject of concern was our lack of school spirit. We yelled, but our cries of enthusiasm just weren't loud enough. It seemed very hard to get people enthused about Chaffey. Paul George, A.S.B. President, was one person who really tried to arouse our spirit. Paul felt, "Our spirit is starting to pick up. It just might get better than last year."

A lot of students felt that we didn't have that much to cheer about. Our administration, at times, appeared similar to Reagan's cost-cutting committee. With all the reductions that were made, students sometimes felt they had nothing left. The impact of no sixth period, the omission of the Tiger Rag, and the forced payment of a $25 activity fee were felt by everyone.

Only twelve classes were offered during sixth period. Funds were not available for a full six-period day schedule. Consequently, some juniors and seniors who would have benefited from having six periods, missed out.

In addition, a $25 activity fee was proposed and passed. Everyone who participated in extra-curricular activities had to pay. Every person who played a sport had to play after school. A class was not designated for sports. This meant athletes did not receive credit for playing a sport.

Most people passively complained. However, the band protested this fee. As a result they were not allowed to perform at the games or anywhere else. For the first time Chaffey fans knew what it was like to attend a home football game without the band performing. They just weren't the same without the inspiration of the band. After a few weeks, the problem was pretty well settled. We got our band back which boosted our school spirit by some measure.

Evidence of Unity

Frosh football shows unity by getting their energy flowing before the game. ▼

NESC is the perfect example o an organization that acts i cooperation with Chaffey's un ty. ▲

Many individuals expressed themselves by dressing according to their favorite music. ▲

With the many different social groups at Chaffey, unity was still evident. The focal point of our unity was at the athletic competitions where we cheered for the Mighty Tigers. No separation of ethnic groups was apparent at the games. We all acted as one complete student body. When it was time to honor our country's flag, everyone arose and sang in harmony to "The Star Spangled Banner".

Small unions were made between two people, or different groups of people. These were apparent all over campus. Teachers such as Dennis Ruiz, worked to make each small ethnic group a part of the unity of Chaffey.

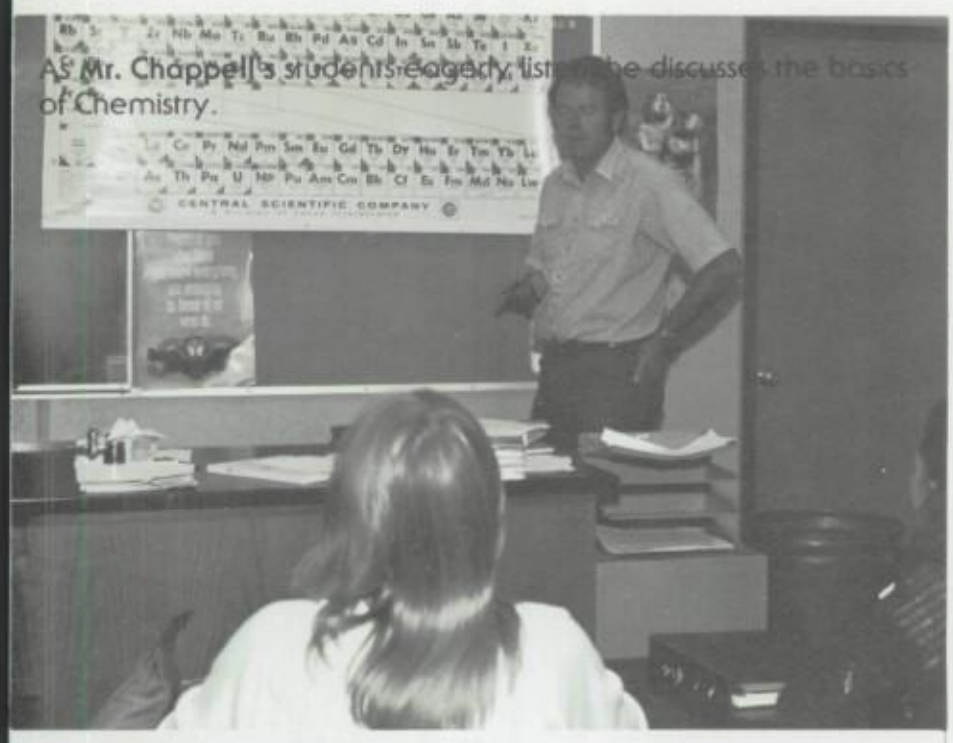
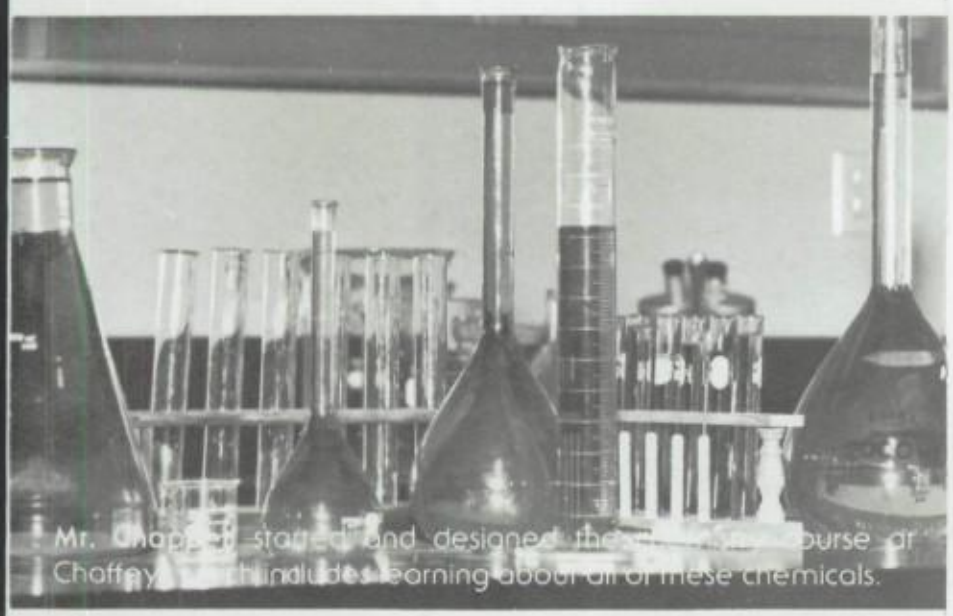
Couples could be seen on campus, too. However, there were not as many as in past years. For certain people this was unfortunate. Yet, there were still these small unions.

Most people in the community tended to exaggerate and miss the positive side of Chaffey's student body unification which makes Chaffey's pride. If there was a fight at Chaffey, the community papers printed it as being a riot. Just because Chaffey had a larger mixture of ethnic backgrounds, our fights were considered riots. Despite this, when the occasion arose we did come together and show our pride as one single student body.



As Mr. Chappell's students eagerly listen, he discusses the basics of Chemistry.



Mr. Chappell started and designed the [illegible] course at Chaffey which includes learning about all of these chemicals.

Dedication

The 1982 dedicatee graduated from Chaffey High School in 1961. His 20 year reunion was celebrated this past summer.

After graduating, he attended Cal Poly to receive his credential in teaching. In 1966 he married Suzanne, his wife of fifteen years. He came to Chaffey in 1969. Ever since he has been a member of the teaching staff at Chaffey. He and Mr. Pine designed the physical science courses for Chaffey students. Being knowledgeable in the field has qualified him to be the only chemistry teacher for several years.

In addition, he advised the Highwaymen Club which is no longer in existence. It was the one and only biking club at Chaffey. Every weekend they organized outings which consisted of pedaling their bicycles to some out of the way place. This was a club in which large numbers of students participated.

His students know him for his expertise and his quick wit. One had to listen carefully to catch his "inside jokes." For being a special person, and an excellent teacher, the Fasti staff is proud to dedicate the 1982 Fasti to:

Actively Involved

In the course of one's years at Chaffey, there are students who seem to "shine" and set an example for their peers. Debbie Roberts is one of these students. She has participated on the swim team, band, and Play Production. Besides serving as senator, Debbie was active in her church's youth group and in the Campus life program.

In her spare time, Debbie enjoyed making her own clothes. She has been accepted to the Institute of Fashion and Design. She felt, "Chaffey is great, and I'm glad I came here because I made a lot of new friends, and had some wonderful experiences."

Numbers

Making his mark in the area of mathematics was Scott Saul. He was enrolled in calculus his senior year, the highest level offered at Chaffey. On the S.A.T. tests Scott scored an impressive 720 out of 750. By volunteering his services as well as his car, he also contributed to the Senior Class paper drive. Scott plans to attend UCR and acquire a job that will enable him to use his mathematical abilities, as well as increasing his knowledge of math. Overall, he felt that Chaffey allowed him to develop a good attitude towards school and thus, enabled him to become a better student and person.

Beautiful Music

Behind the keys of a piano producing beautiful music, one would likely find Lori Baeza. With eleven years of musical background, Lori hopes to be accepted in a music conservatory. She has a love for classical music. "My favorite composer would have to be Chopin, who's music has influenced the world greatly and whose tragic and romantic life has influenced me," stated Lori. One of her many favorite pieces is the "Brahms Brunof Rhapsody."

Lori used her musical skills widely. She was an organist for the St. George Folk Choir, and often visited various convalescent homes, participating in religious services. At Chaffey, Lori has been in a variety of choir activities throughout her four years. By making use of her talents, she has made her personage unique. Chaffey has had an active foreign exchange program for many years. Through this program, Phyliss Porter was able to travel to Cordoba, Argentina, and spend her summer with the Espindola family. Phyliss stated, "In order to adjust in Argentina, I had to be able to share myself as a person and learn new ways."

When Phyliss arrived in Argentina, she was prepared for sunny California weather. To her surprise, it was between 30°-50°. During her stay, Phyliss traveled on the bus system. She said it was very organized, and there was always a bus around. When asked about her family life, Phyliss quoted, "Family life is different in Argentina. the children and parents have respect for each other and they are deeply involved in family activities." Some of the places that Phyliss visited were the Vienna Boys Choir, Buenos Aires, and many mountain and lake regions.

Bonnie plans to attend the Gemological Institute of America and become a jewelry designer. She felt that her years at Chaffey had given her a lot of confidence and growth in herself. "You can be in for a lot of letdowns, but if you find something good, it's worth it."

We were fortunate to have Leslie Sutliff as a student as Chaffey. Leslie has participated in the Chaffey Singers for one year, where she accompanied on the piano, danced, and helped choreograph the dances. After Chaffey Singers, she became involved in A Cappela. She was also a member of the Foreign Exchange Club.

Looking ahead after graduation, Leslie plans to attend Cal Poly, Pomona, and major in accounting. Being in the Work Experience program for two years helped her come this decision. It has given her the chance to explore different careers, and introduced her to the business world. "I feel that these years have been a rewarding experience." stated Leslie exhuberantly.

Incredible Courage

Gliding across the ice with the grace of a swan is Jeanette Bonham. Beginning ice skating at 14, she practiced six hours a day, every week. Along with her skating talents, Jeanette is actively involved with gymnastics. She was an assistant coach for a gymnastics center in Upland. While practicing her gymnastic stunts, she had an accident which put her behind in both activities. Gradually, she increased her training in both areas. In terms of a possible Olympic future, she commented, "Yes, if not 1984, perhaps in 1988."

Jeanette hopes to open her own studio and teach dance, gymnastics, and specialized dancing for ice skaters. During this time, she plans to attend Cal Poly, Pomona, and major in physical education.

1982 Senior Class Cabinet
Making Their Mark in Student Leadership

The members of the Senior Class Cabinet dedicated themselves to making the 81-82 school year the best it could be for each senior. The cabinet sponsored the 1st Backwards Dance in November. The theme was to celebrate Chaffey's 70-year anniversary by having couples dress in the fashions from 1912 to 1982. They also sponsored a paper drive as a part of class competition, which was won by the senior class. Probably the most memorable event sponsored by the senior class was the Junior-Senior Prom held at the Newporter Inn in May.

Sealbearers were seniors who qualified for life membership in the California Scholarship Federation. They must be a member of C.S.F. for at least four of the last six semesters, and at least one of these memberships must have been earned during their senior year. A Sealbearer receives a gold seal on the diploma and is identified at graduation by his/her gold tassles and cords.

1982 Boy of the Year

Darren Sandquist – Darren was chosen Boy of the Year because of the numerous activities in which he was involved as a senior. Few students have contributed more time to the activities program. As Senior Vice-President Darren helped plan the Prom, fall Backward Dance, and several fund raising activities. He was also a member of NESC, the varsity team, the basketball, varsity tennis team, and the Fasti sports staff. Even with all these activities Darren found time help coach AYSCO soccer and was active in his church youth program. Academics played an important part Darrens career in as evidenced by being selected CSF President.

Girl of the Year

Kathy Snell – Kathy was chosen Girl of the Year because of the many hours of service and leadership she contributed to Chaffey High School. As Senior Class President Kathy was responsible for the planning of the fall Backward Dance and the Junior-Senior Prom held at the Newporter Inn. Without her leadership, these activities would have never occurred. Kathy was also instrumental in planning for the first Junior/Senior Prom King-Queen Recognition Royalty. As a Y-Council member and camp counselor many young peoples lives were enriched by her job as a camp counselor.

Tiger Standouts
Department Awards

Chaffey's Class of 1982 had many outstanding graduates who excelled in academic areas as well as extra-curricular activities. Departmental awards were chosen in the basis of interest, grade point average and participation. The students wre nominated by teachers from the specific departments committee for final selection.

A Glance at the Fads and Fashions of '81-'82

Nobody could say that Chaffey was set apart from the rest of the world many of the fads and fashions of the entire world had a great influence on what we wore and did.

The most popular style of dress was the "preppy" look. This style included penny-loafers, top-siders, argyle socks, plaid pants, La Coste shirts, and sweaters of many different varieties. Ralph Lauren was a top designer of "preppy" fashions. Most girls and guys who dressed "preppy" found out just how expensive it could get. The "preppy" look inspired two new fads which were 'gatoring' and 'slamming.' These were two unorthodox types of dances. Both dances produced cuts, bruises, and a few bloody noses.

The colors that appeared most across campus were pink, khaky green, red, and beige. These were visible through knickers, mini-skirts, and sweaters. Stripes were also very popular.

Another new style which was instigated was the nautical look. This mode of dress gave our campus the appearance of a yachting club. Sailor shirts for the girls, with the bib in the back were very popular. Of course, they were a little more feminine than those worn by actual sailors.

The surge of new wave music inspired a look all its own. Short hair cuts, arranged in many unique ways were very prominent among new wave fans.

Video games proved to be America's favorite past-time. Chaffey students were no exception. "Pac Man fever" had its affect on everybody. Despite feelings that video games cause stress which can cause heartattacks, arcades were continuously jam-packed with people who killed the "Centipede," destroyed the "Space Invaders," and avoides the "Qix."

Second in popularity, as a favorite past-time, was twisting and turning the Rubik's cube. It was rumored that Japanese doctor's felt the rubik's cube could change personalities, and cause maddening hysteria. For most of us, the latter was true. Figuring out the cube, literally drove some of us hysterical.

Events of 1981-'82

In Depth

We were not immune to the events of the world, whether they were political, social, or economical. Most of us were very much in tune with everything that occurred throughout the school year. Current events definitely made their mark on campus.

To some, the happiest event was the marriage of Prince Charles to Lady Diana Spencer. We all sat in awe while viewing all of the splendor surrounding this "fairytale" marriage.

To women everywhere, the appointment of Sandra Day O'Connor to the United State Supreme Court, was considered a victory. It was the first time a woman had ever received the honor.

Dodger fans jumped for joy when the L.A. Dodgers won the 1981 World Series. To beat the New York Yankees was a supreme victory. While speaking of the Dodgers, one must not forget the widespread popularity of Fernando Valenzuela. He proved to be the Dodgers's star pitcher. Of course, since he proved to be a star, he asked for a one million dollar contract. In the end, he settled for $350 thousand.

The popularity of the Rolling Stones certainly had not decreased since thr first appearance in the sixties. Their national tour was sold out in every city. One concert was even televised on ON T.V.

The appearance of the Mediterranean Fruit Fly (the Med-fly) caused some feelings of uneasiness in the State capital. Certain areas of California became infested with this little bug.

Governor Brown spent huge amounts of money to spray these areas. Fortunately, the problem was solved within a few months.

Turning to the more serious aspect of current events, we were face-to-face with the ever present fear of assasins. An assasination attempt on President Reagan occured in Washington, D.C. The President's bullet richocheted off of his lung, not causing severe damage. James Brady, however, suffered a bullet wound to his head. After long months of suffering, and physical therapy, Brady survived. The assasination attempt on Pope John Paul II by a Turkish terrorist, also came as a shock. Fortunately the Pope survived. Anwar Sadat's assasination delivered a severe blow to all world leaders. The manner in which he was murdered did not seem fit for a man devoted to peace-making.

The collapse of two walkways at Kansas City's Hyatt Regency Hotel was unbelieveable. This unreal disaster left 113 dead, 186 injured, and the rest of the world speechless.

Most talked about was the crisis in Poland. With the increasing popularity of Solidarity, Poland's leaders became uneasy. They virtually cut off all telphone and telex lines. They then began to enforce martial law. Lech Walesa became the voice of Solidarity. Shortly afterwards, Walesa was arrested for his involvement. Poland's leader General Jaruzelski's pretext for his actions was Solidarity's widespread support for unorthodox proposals which constitute heresay in a Communist state. One of these proposals was a call for a national referendum on whether or not the government should stay in power. As Lech Walesa remains in jail, the rest of the world waits.

America had its share of worries over the economy and nuclear war. Both posed as frightening subjects. With all of the worries and fears, there was one event that gave us all hope. The two successful launches and landing of the Space Shuttle Columbia proved to give the entire nation a surge of inspiration which was greatly needed.

Cross-Country Hits the Road

The Cross-Country girls enjoy showing off after a good race at Alta Loma. ▼

Coach Arenas, of the Girls' Cross-Country team, commented, "This team was small, consisting of only six girls, but very hard working." This season, the team ran a three mile course consisting of flat and hilly trails. Since the team was so small, there were no duel meet records. "Although," Coach Arenas said, "Our team did very well at Invitationals, winning a total of ten medals at four events."

During the season, Dana Bylsma, a Freshman, was the outstanding individual of the team. Her honors include third place at Industry Hills, sixth place at the Colton Invitational, fifth place at Pacific, and first place Frosh at Mt. Sac Invitational. She also placed fourth in the Baseline League Finals. Dana now holds the three mile record at 19:36.

Follow the Leader

Coach Ovitt looked forward to his season with high expectations since Sylvester Martinez joined the 1981 Cross-Country team. "With the addition of him, we hoped to improve to the point of challenging for the top half of the league." The team had a successful season of four duel meet wins and three losses. Coach Ovitt commented, "We beat Upland for the first time and challenged each team we faced."

During the 1981 season, Clive Woods was the outstanding individual, finishing fifth in league finals. Also, two other senior runners Hector Robles, who finished 10th in league finals, and Sylvester Martinez, who finsihed 18th, ran very well and helped the team to a successful season. Coach Ovitt stated, "As a coach, I thorughly enjoyed working with all those outstanding individuals and want to express my thanks to the team."

Scoreboard Does Not Tell All

Battling every game, the Varsity football team gave their opponents a tough fight. Although Chaffey looked a little shaky at the beginning of the season, Coach Stark gave his team the incentive to attack every game with the desire to win. It was apparent that the Tigers had the motivation to give their all with a win against Pomona, our Homecoming game. Trying to put together a winning streak, the Tigers made a phenomenal come-from-behind surge against Damien to tie the game in the last few seconds of the battle. Bringing the excitement of football for the year to an end, Chaffey left their mark on the Chaffey College field with a win against Alta Loma. Key plays by Alan Gushue and Larry Maldonado gave the Tigers the spirit to keep on fighting to the end. Bruce Parks, the largest player on the team, had an exceptional year with a total of over 100 tackles. Scott Schwartz, the quarterback for the Tigers, showed Chaffey's opponents he could play offense as well as outstanding defense.

Tigers Have Winning Spirit

Overpowering with experience and size, the Tigers rip a hole up the middle, to allo Rodney Thomas to breeze into a first down. ▼

Spirit was the name of the game. The Tigers had the spirit to keep on fighting when the odds were against them. For the Tigers, the cards were dealt unfairly. The Tigers gave their opponents a fight that only Chaffey could deliver.

This was true of the starting players, down to the players who gave their participation from the sidelines. Brian Alvarez was one of those players. Brian participated four years, from the freshmen level to the spirited Varsity team. Brian's desire to give the team this spirit inspired the whole team to continue fighting, even though a win seemed to be out of their reach. Brian and his teammates gave the Chaffey students an enjoyable football season.

Coach's Comments

A bigger than usual line and some experienced backs gave hope for a banner year, but injuries in pre-season games, a meaner than usual flu strain, and the untimely loss of Dave Horton's talents for the season, dealt blows to the team that the Tigers found difficult to overcome.

Opening Baseline League play with losses against Glendora, Don Lugo, and Claremont might have dampened the spirits of lesser men, but the Tigers are made of sterner stuff. The old never-say-die attitude surfaced with a solid win over Pomona, a thrilling come-from-behind tie with Damien, and an equally thrilling see-saw victory over Alta Loma in the last 38 seconds. Although the record does not indicate a standout year, there were many individual standout performances, comparable with those displayed in even championship years, and the Tigers deserved better than the fates allowed.

The Defensive Wonders Leave Opponents Wondering

Compare the J.V. football team to a brick wall, and the comparison would be close. When opposing teams attempted to knock down their "wall", the other team was left wondering what stunned them. Low in depth, but not in talent, the J.V. Team went undefeated in regular play. Coach Dave Stauffer said, "This team has turned out to be a real record breaker." Not only were they undefeated and record breakers, they only allowed one touchdown to rival Upland, a feat never accomplished by a J.V. level team.

Though the defense was the strength, the offense was not to be overlooked. They outscored their opponents 85-7. Outstanding offensive players were quarterback Bob Martin, runningbacks, Rodney Thomas, Tim Olague, and Jesse Campos, receivers, Dominick Copas and Fred Vunipola.The linemen consisted of Ben Wheeler, Dale Jones, Dave Otuafi, and Larry Nixon. Frank Porto led the defensive backs. These Junior Varsity players are certainly play-off contenders for the Baseline League next year.

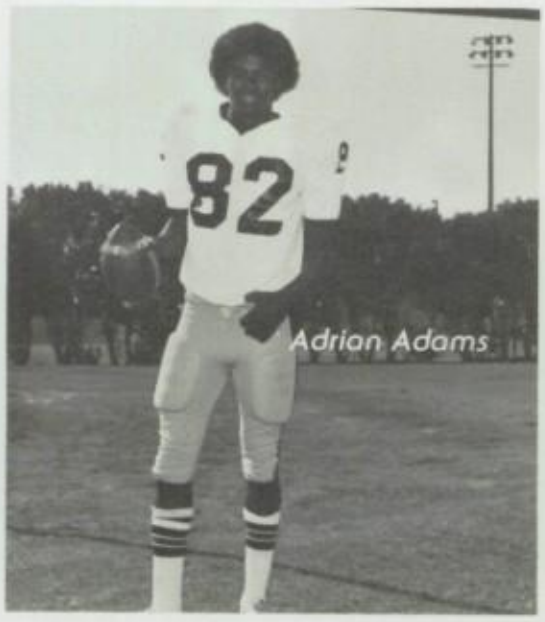
Chaffey's Super Tigers



Seniors made their mark when all-league players were chosen this year. Chaffey's stars were Bruce Parks, Alan Gushue, Larry Maldonado, Adrian Adams, and Scott Schwartz. Each player proved to be outstanding in their respective positions.

Bruce Parks has played football throughout his four years of high school, and plans to continue at college. Bruce tallied up 103 tackles for the season, 18 of which were made during the Glendora game. Along with making all-league offensive and defensive teams, Bruce was also awarded with the honor of Pomona Valley Linesman of the Year. A very prestigious honor was bestowed upon Bruce. He was one of the six Californians to be named to the All American team.

Since the middle of his sophomore year, Alan Gushue has been playing football. During the Pomona/Chaffey game, Alan gained 200 yards, unfortunately 100 of which were called back. Alan earned a position on second team offense and defense along with being named player of the week in the Claremont game.

Larry Maldonado has been a member of the football program for three years, one of which was spent on the sophomore team, the others on Varsity. Larry plans to attend Mt. San Antonio College where he will play either football or become a wrestler. Along with being awarded a spot on all league second team defense, Larry has also been defensive player of the week twice. Larry's most favorable game was the Alta Loma/Chaffey game where he rushed for 137 yards on 10 carries. Defensive end and fullback were the positions where Larry showed his incredible talent.

Adrian Adams is undecided about a college, but he narrowed it down to three, Arizona, Oregon, and Stanford University. Adrian played football for only one year, which was his year as a Varsity player. He was awarded the honor of a position on the all-league first team offense. Adrian's most memorable game was the Chaffey/Don Lugo game where he accumulated a total of 149 yards.

Scott Schwartz has played football for 10 years. Although he is undecided as to which college he will attend, he has narrowed it down with his top choice being Wyoming University, where he hopes to play football for four more years. Scott felt his best offensive game was against Damien. "We came from behind with 1:19 left in the game. On the 2-point conversion, we made it with 8 seconds left." In his freshman and sophomore years, Scott was chosen Most Valuable Player on the respective teams. Scott was the co-captain of the Varsity team in his senior year. Because of his tough offensive and defensive plays, Scott earned a position on all league first team defense, and second team offense. Each of these super Tigers showed their talent in each of their tough positions. All five made their marks in Chaffey's history books.

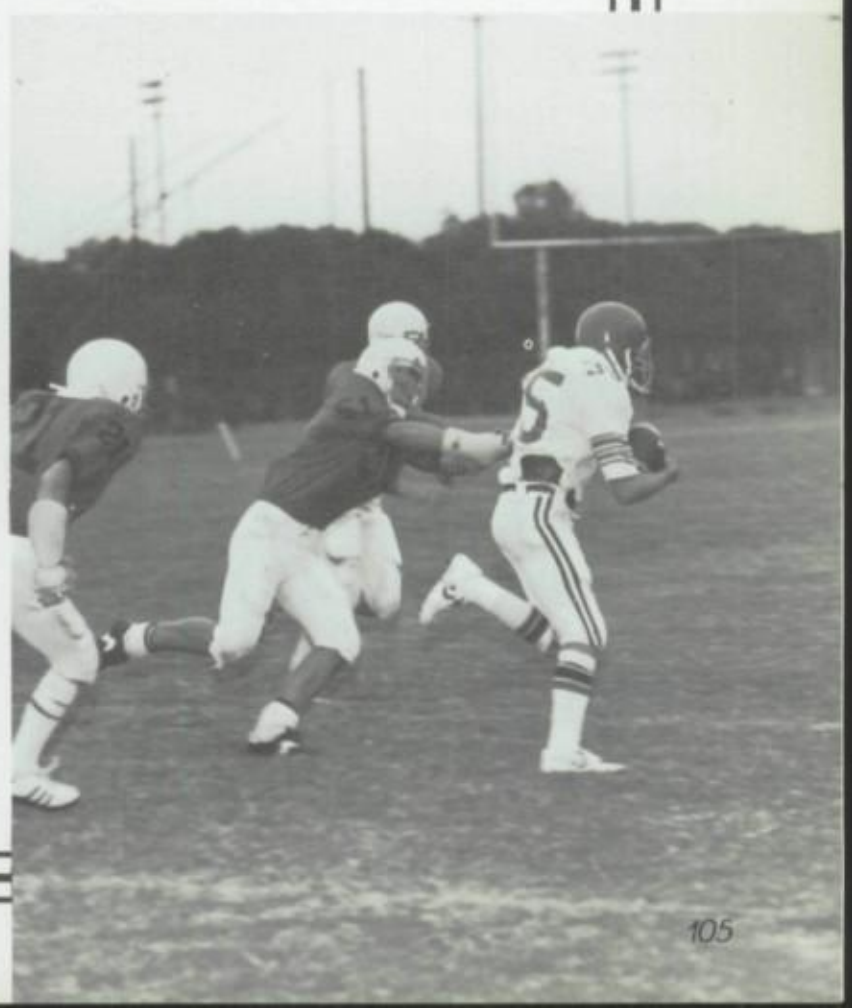
The Sophomore football team had a very rough season this year. With a record of 0-10, the Tigers looked shut out. Coach Jim Reno and Coach Bill Thornhill gave their team the spirit to keep driving forward and to attack every team which they faced. Although the team was behind during the season, the team learned many valuable lessons which would help Chaffey in years to come.

Many outstanding players contributed to the team, both on the offense and the defense. Chris Parks demonstrated an outstanding job on the offensive line. In the position of center. Pat McGinty showed varsity potential. Dean Shibley held the opponent's offensive line with a minimum of gained yardage. The Sophomore team learned from the mistakes of the 81-82 season and will be back next year to make the J.V. and Varsity teams successful.

Fighting the pains of football, Chris Parks shows what he must go through to participate on the Sophomore level. ◄

The young Tigers show that if an opponent breaks out into the open field, he can count on a rough tackle. ▼



Freshmen Work on the Fundamentals

If you asked a freshmen football player what the most important subject at school would be, he would probably reply, "Fundamentals and discipline." Teacher-Coach, Tom Graham, said, "In order to have a good football team, fundamentals and discipline are the needed mixture." This is what the freshmen received, and they received plenty.

In a mistake-filled start, losing their first three games, the freshmen finally put the work they did in practice on the football field. All that work obviously paid off. They came back to win two games, only to lose their next three games, but not after a hard fought battle. There was plenty of talent on this freshmen team that will join the varsity ranks in ample time.

Some of the outstanding players through the season were Jerry Brinkley, Andy Greer, Brent Meseberg, Lance Johnson, Kirk Olson, Billy Wilkerson, all on offense. On defense were Mike Manning and Loc Sekona.

Full of Bumps

The road to success was narrow and bumpy for the volleyball team. The team found its way to the winning column only four times throughout the long season. These wins were courtesy of San Gorgonio, Upland, Pomona, and Don Lugo. Much of the team's experience came from junior standouts Jackie Taylor and Bonnie England, with Julie Vunipola contributing seniority.

Coach Flarity's players carried the enthusiasm of a quality squad, but unfortunately fell short when it counted. This enthusiasm made all the difference though, when it came down to the true meaning of competition, to have a good time. And a good time is exactly what the 1981 volleyball squad had.

Exploding with talent and experience, Coach Edmon's Varsity girls' basketball team demonstrated great potential early in the season. With outstanding freshmen, and experienced seniors, this team had the height and versatility to be in reach of CIF. The younger freshmen and sophomore players had been able to pick up on the Tiger game strategies because of the dedicated and expertise of the returning players. Coach's Comments

The season outlook should favor another CIF trip, if our younger players come around. 6 ft. Freshman, Tawanna Terry, provides good height, but lacks experience. I believe that she will gain the experience before the season is over. We have returned 2nd team All Baseline Leaguers, point guard, Debbie Smith, and Forward, Juli Vunipola. Wing Guards, Sylvia Fort, Gloria Felix, and Shelly McNeair provide us with strong shooting. J.V. basketball is usually a holding place for the young inexperienced players who are awaiting a chance to prove themselves for the varsity team. This is not the case of this year's J.V. girls basketball team. Returning players from last year's squad are giving the team the experience needed for a successful basketball team. Jackie Arrectche and Julie Adams two of the returning players were also the captains of this successful team. The other two returnees were Rene Allen and Becky Patterson. Coach Joe Reynaga stated that the team had outstanding rebounding capabilities which aided the team. Orange Team Makes Comeback Win in Tradition

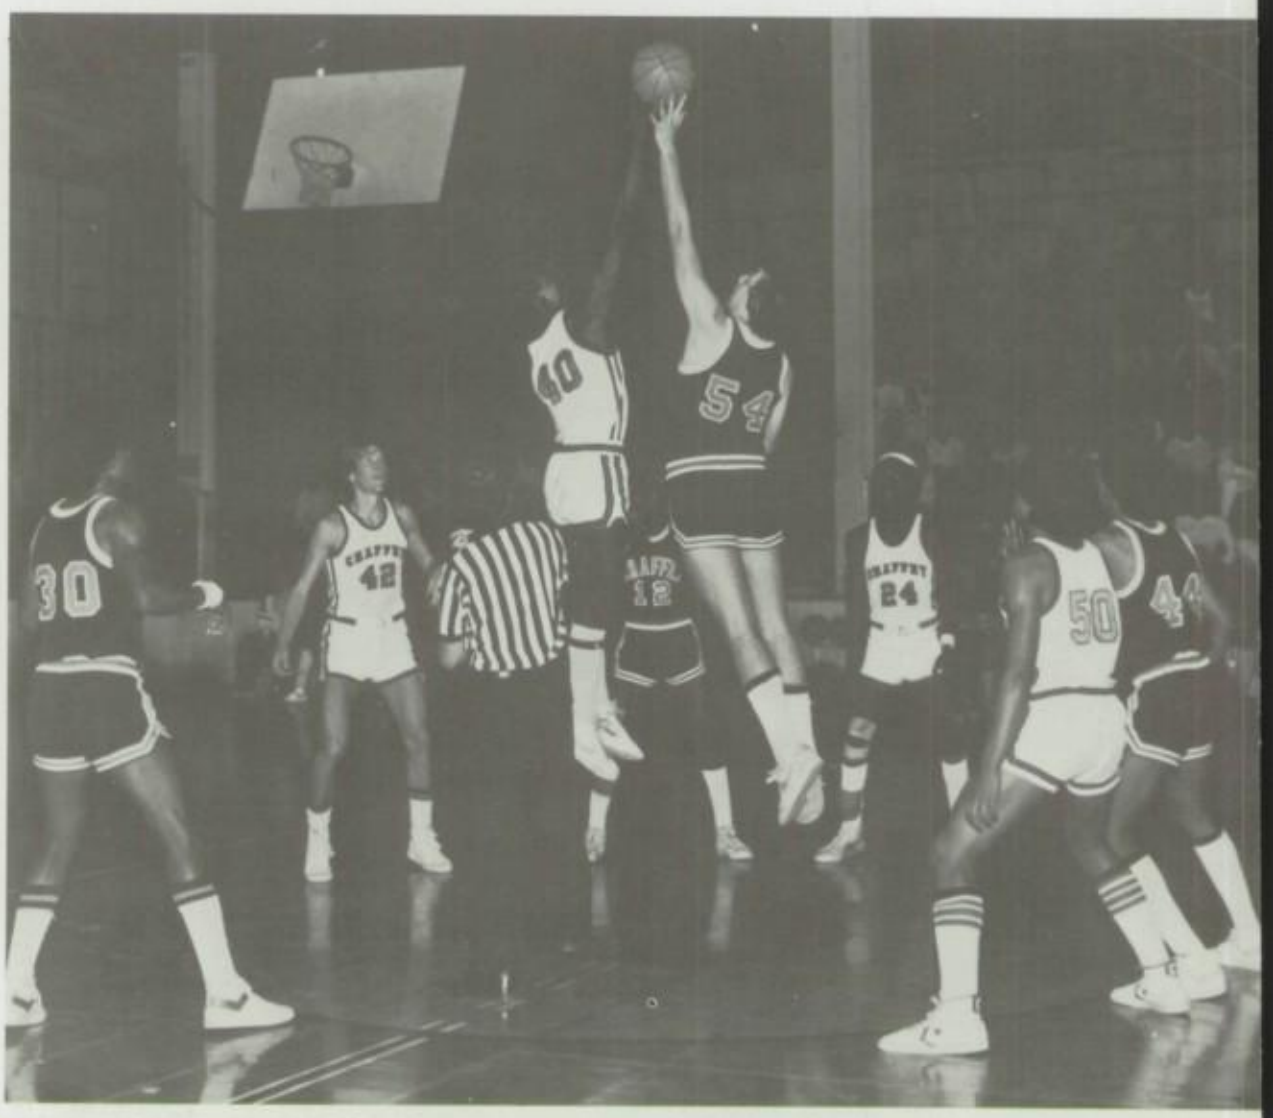
The traditional Orange and Black basketball game, once again, turned out to be a barn burner. However, the game was not dominated, as in usual, by the Varsity players, but by the J.V. players. The Orange team ultimately won the game, but only after they had trailed most of the game. When the Orange J.V. unit replaced the Varsity Orange players, the tide shifted and the Orange team took the lead and won.



The opening tip-off marked the beginning of the yearly tradition. ▶ ally Waters of the '62 team put on a scoring show ith 14 points. Here he drives against Joel Rogers 34.

It was a vintage Alumni team that came back to haunt the Chaffey Field House and defeat the 1981-82 basketball team. What looked to be a pre-season warm-up for an improved Varsity team, ended up being a lesson in seniority, taught by the Alumni. The lesson taught by these elders was; experience beats youth. Lead by the CIF champions of 1962, the Alumni team played with composure gained through years of experience. Ironically, the last team to lose an Alumni game was the same 1962 champs that played for this year's Alumni.

What figured to be one of Chaffey's best basketball teams in years turned out to be a frustrating and disappointing season. With four returning players, Adrian Adams, Nick Carcich, Darren Sandquist, and junior Billy Hilbert, plus a slew of other seniors lead by Charles Buggs and Leo Smith, the Tiger Cagers promised an action-packed season. The action was there, but unfortunately the wins were limited.

Most of the excitement was displayed on Chaffey's home court in front of some of the loudest fans the school has ever had. The Tigers gave them plenty to yell for, too — particularly two amazing games versus Claremont and Alta Loma. Both games were lost in the final nine seconds', however, a 94-41 win over Don Lugo provided some high scoring and cheers for the Chaffey fans. Other home court wins came against Upland and Glendora.

Large spirited crowds showed up to provide inspiration for the action packed home games.

Young Squad Gives It all They've Got

An unusually young soccer team," according to Coach Dave Cook, "is a challenge for any coach." With only four seniors graduating, Carlos Cespedes, David Chapman, Carlos and Sylvester Martinez, the outlook for next year seemed to be good. Three juniors headed the prospects for next year, Billy Evans, Adrian Gonzalez, and Gerald Lange, with numerous underclassmen in the ranks. As head Varsity soccer coach for two years, Coach Cook was looking toward a .500 season, which he said would be adequate for such a young team. In their rebuilding year, the young squad put many top-rated teams to the test. Rival Claremont, which was rated #1 in CIF this year, was the first victim to fall to the Tigers. They were subject to a tie by the Varsity team. Claremont was not the only team to be the Tiger's prey. Rolling Hills, last years #1 rated team, was the young tigers next target. Varsity soccer also placed 5th in the highly rated Damien Soccer Tourney.

Teamwork is the main objective in the Varsity's game plan.▲

Heading in the Right Direction

Along with the rules and special plays in soccer, there is one play that really seems to stand-out. Not only is it an art in itself, it could be the major factor in deciding a soccer game. Very few people can really master the art of "heading." The technique seems quite simple, as the ball is kicked up into the air, one simply jumps up and knocks it with his head. Simple right? Not quite, let's let the experts show us how it is done . . .

Lance Johnson "heads" the ball in the right direction.▼

#11 Gerald Lange uses his "head" to achieve his "goal."▶

#15 Lenny Gallardo splits the defenders in two with a "head-shot."▲

A Team Effort

According to Coach John Herrera it took more than just eleven players on the playing field, working individually, to have a winning season. "Team effort is the key in order for us to have a successful season." Stressing fundamentals and conditioning, Coach John Herrera felt that his team would have a good season if the tools were used right.

Even though this was Coach Herrera's first year as a coach in a high school level league, he did not lack experience. Two years as an A.Y.S.O. coach, and never having a losing season were his credentials. Though the team as a unit played together, Coach Herrera believed freshmen Kevin Moss and John Alvarez were exceptionally good assets to the team.

With high expectations, Coach Francisco stated, "We expect to have a winning season, come in first in the league, and go to the playoffs." With such positive enthusiasm, Chaffey's varsity softball team could not help but do well. Several returning players aided the team to victory. Four-year letterman, Dana McCurter made the position of catcher her own. Other returningplayers included four-year letterman Debbie Peters, Debi Ward, and three-year letterman, Sherri McMasters. Three-year letterman and pitcher, Blenda Selvey, last year's Baseline League player-of-the year, returned to pitch another season.

Top Pitchers Return

The 1982 baseball season looked very promising for the Chaffey Tiger Varsity team. Reasons prompting such enthusiasm are the return of last year's two top pitchers, seniors Mario Gallo and Charlie Vieira. Also joining the pitching ranks is junior, Dominick Copas, after a successful season with the Junior Varsity team.

Returning lettermen include co-captains, Scott Melendrez, and Charles Morris, and outfielders Ernie Espinoza, and Scott Schwartz. Strengthening the catching department was Sal Lopez. Other players joining the Varsity team from the Junior Varsity ranks are Brian Alvarez, Bob Martin, Ron McGinnis, Rob McCorcle, Albert Leyva, Jim Eliot and Jerry Lange.

Tigers Have Pride and Strength

The girls' track team may have been smaller than usual, but they made up for it with their strength and speed. With the return of numerous seniors and the addition of some freshmen, the team was in great shape. The returning seniors, which lead as captains, also helped to raise team spirit and enthusiasm among the newcomers of the team. Returning seniors were Mary Cardas, Valerie Guest, Bertha Robinson, Robin Van Alstine, and Juli Vunipola.

"The girls' track team, led by a large contingent of seniors, was the favorite to win the Baseline League Championship," Coach Johnson said early in the season. "With dedication, I firmly believe that we will be undefeated as well." Sophomore, Kimm Middleton, and Junior, Jackie Howard, ran the 100, 200, 440 relay, the long jump, and the 330 low hurdles, 100, 440, and 440 relay respectively. Valerie Guest conquered the high jump and the 330 low hurdles, with Juli Vunipola in the triple jump and 110 low hurdles. Seniors in field events strenghtened the team greatly with Mary Cardas in the discus, Bertha Robinson in the long and triple jump, and Robin Van Alstine in the shot put.

Freshman, Dana Byalsma, returned after a successful season in Cross Country to run the 880, mile, and 2 mile. With girls such as these, the team couldn't go wrong. "Due to circumstances beyond our control, our numbers were down, but fortunately, our attitudes and dedication are as strong as ever. The girls track team is still #1, stated Coach Johnson.

The boys' track team, coached by Mr. Labarrere, Mr. Guest, and Mr. Ovitt, had many returning outstanding seniors in field events, such as Bruce Parks in the shot put and discus, Trent Willis in the long and triple jump, and John Moore in the high jump and pole vault. Outstanding seniors in distance and sprints were Clive Woods and Hector Robles in the mile and 2 mile, Michael Herbert in the 100 and 220, and Milfred Ellerd in the hurdles.

"We had about 50 members, the largest squad in several years," stated Coach Labarrere. Several fine seniors scored well, with the underclassmen adding to team and individual points. Many qualifying individuals achieved the honor of being one of the top 3 in the league in their respective events. This made them eligible for post season CIF competition.

With a low turnout of aquatic performers, the girls' swimming team was combined with the boys' team. This meant more enjoyable workouts for both. By having the teams workouts merged together, the team's spirit was boasted to a new high. Each encouraged one another to push to their full potential at every workout which meant the Tigers had to swim a minimum of 2 hours a day.

The standouts on the team were Melanie Gile and Cricket Wilson. One anonymous aqua-tiger stated, "We all went out to practice and to the meets with one thing on our minds; to have fun!"

Early morning workouts were hard, but they were necessary to produce a winning team. Returning swimmers were Russell Miya and Chris Johnes, along with Richard Dagley and Andrew Mishaan. All the swimmers knew the rough conditions the coaches put on them were intended to build their swimming ability. When all four vowed to swim for the Tigers, they stated, "To have a winning team, we have to sacrifice a lot of our spare time." It wasn't just her peers, but her parents who were proud of her, and they had a lot to be proud of. She wasn't only crowned queen on her parents' 33rd wedding anniversary, but all through her four years at Chaffey, she has shown outstanding qualities.

Cassandra started in modern dance when she was a Freshman and, during her Sophomore and Junior years she was a member of Orchesis. She showed her involvement in the school and her spirit by being a J.V. ◀ 1981-82 Varsity Songleaders

The theme of the United Spirit Association's (U.S.A.) cheerleading camp seemed to be chosen especially for our pep squad. The four-day, three-night summer camp was packed with fun and excitement. "Becoming very close, letting loose, going crazy and spastic, and having a fantastic time with no one telling us to calm down," were some of the highlights remembered by pep commissioner, Debbie Leffingwell.

The entire squad, as well as their advisor, Ms. Sepulveda, went to the camp in Santa Barbara; coming home, however, was a different story. They brought back with them 60 Superior, 20 Spirit, and 18 Creativity ribbons. Ribbons were given out each night on the basis of learning, performing, making up moves and cheers, and were graded on a scale of Outstanding, Excellent, and Superior, Superior being the highest.

Each of the squads (J.V., Varsity, and Song) received a Superior trophy at the end of camp. This award was given for leadership, following rules, squad unity, and ability. Out of 1000 girls, our Songleaders came in 3rd with their dance routine to "Crazy Train." Mascot Lisa Benton was given the coveted spirit stick twice for being the most-spirited mascot of the day.

As in years past, the pep squad painted many posters and cheered at all athletic events. Their hard work and determination not only brought them over 100 awards, but in addition, the respect and admiration of their peers.

Representing our school in the Foreign Exchange program was Senior, Phyllis Porter. During the summer of 1981, Phyllis lived in Cordoba, Argentina with the Espindola family. Her newly acquired family consisted of two brothers, three sisters, and a loving mother. Phyllis said that the people of Argentina were kind and friendly, and that they had very open hearts. She attended an all girls Catholic school which stressed education and studying intensely. Phyliss had a very good time in Argentina, and she will always remember her second family, her new friends, and all the people she met there.

Beatriz Manrique De Lara arrived in the United States from Bilbao, Spain. Beatriz had visited the U.S. once before. She stated that her stay in California was more enjoyable than her stay in New York City, the reason being that New York was too crowded and noisy. Beatriz enjoyed her stay in California very much while camping in Yosemite, going to the sunny beaches of Southern California, attending parties, dancing, and becoming a junk food lover. She had a nice time and enjoyed herself wherever she went. At school, Beatriz was involved in the Foreign Exchange Club and Executive Council. Beatriz is a very special person with a lot going for her, as she plans to further her education by going on to college after high school. She plans to study in the United States or Germany. We were fortunate to have had such a "buena chica" here, as she gave our school a touch of Spain.

Claude Aeschlimann came to us from the distant land of Geneva, Switzerland. Claude was a talkative person who enjoyed "Rock and Roll" music and American girls. He said that life in the United States wasn't much different than in Switzerland, except that people talk differently here. While in California, Claude lived with the Mitchell family, and met a lot of very nice people. He enjoyed many teenage pastimes, such as going to parties and to Carl's after the Friday night football games. Claude has kept himself busy at school by being a member of the Foreign Exchange Club and French Club. He also played soccer and was in Executive Council. Claude enjoyed himself immensly in the U.S. and hopes to return some day soon.

Carlos Doussinague came to the United States from Spain. While in California, he lived with the Christensen family. Carlos found school here very strict, but he still enjoyed himself by going to parties and dances, such as the Homecoming and the after-game dance. He was also a member of the soccer team. According to Carlos, students in California are similar to students in Spain, in the respect that students in both countries like to get together and have a good time at school and at social events. Carlos enjoyed listening to American music. Among his favorite groups were Journey and Foreigner. Carlos made many friends while here and spent time with them at parties, football and basketball games, and at the movies. Carlos enjoyed his stay in the United States and he will always remember the good times he experienced here.

Their Hands Are Their Fortune

Annually, the Art Department chooses the top four senior art students. Each student had put in many hours of work in school art classes which enabled them to ripen their artistic talents. The talented four were Karl Smoll, Tony De La Rosa, Cathy Vogel, and Jon Stark.

Karl Smoll has been drawing for 7 years, putting in about 39 hours a week. Karl gets his picture ideas from Arte Del Varrio, Low Rider magazine, and the Bible. Out of the two hundred drawings he has done, the one of the Virgin Mary is his favorite. In addition to art, Karl enjoys basketball and listening to oldies.

Along with Karl, Tony De La Rosa is an outstanding student in drawing. With a little help from his sister, Tony became interested in art at the age of 5. Tony feels, "The best thing about drawing was the challenge of taking an idea or object and using my own talents to transfer it onto paper and saying, 'Hey, I did that'." His favorite projects are the portraits he did of the rock group, Journey. Many of Tony's other projects can be seen hanging in the cancer ward of a certain West-End hospital or in the homes of his friends. Together with art, Tony has many other interests such as music, playing the guitar, and working with his Red-Headed Amazon parrot.

Recognized for her painting talents was Cathy Vogel. Cathy has always liked art, ever since finger-painting in kindergarten. Cathy enjoyed art because it was fun to make her own world within a painting. Cathy favors working with watercolor paintings because," they leave a fresh, crisp, transparent quality to a picture. They are hard, but that's challenging." Most of Cathy's pictures have been given away as gifts and she plans to keep art as a hobby throughout life.

Jon Stark was first introduced to ceramics by his friends, Tony Gaskill and Larry Neff. Jon spends about 12 to 15 hours a week creating and has produced about eighty pieces in a 4 year span. Jon's favorite piece is his sea serpent, Cecil. Cecil is 17 feet long, weighs 350 pounds, and was in the making for 6 months. Jon gave Cecil to his parents for their 30th Wedding Anniversary. The response by the rest of the Stark family was so overwhelming that Jon made them each a miniature duplicate for Christmas. When asked how he felt while working on his crafts, Jon replied, "I feel like my own little God, giving life to these inanimate balls of clay with creativity and character."

years of hard work has given Tony De La Rosa an excep-nal talent in art.

Even though she has been doing water colors for only a year, Cathy Vogel's skills radiate from her portraits.

The Executive Council faced a lot of changes in the 1981-82 school year. The sale of Combo cards was surprisingly low, so the Executive Council worked hard to increase the sales. Each member of the Council made posters and visited classrooms to encourage the sale of Combo cards. The Council also worked on bringing back old traditions, such as the Prom king and queen, and the Tiger Rag. Their other duties included planning class competition, handing out picture packets, and the annual blood drive. They also helped out during scramble and Freshmen orientation. As A.S.B. President, Paul George, stated, "The Executive Council's main goal was to bring the student body together as a unit." The entire Executive Council put a lot of effort into achieving this goal.

Activities Board Sails Through Rough Waters

ctivities Board members show their Halloween spirit by dressing up as their alter ego. ▼

Despite the lack of enthusiasm displayed at football games, and the shortage of money in the A.S.B., the Activities Board made it through tough times. Their determination to restore school spirit was seen in rallies and after-game dances. They organized Homecoming week activities, which included queen competition, the Homecoming rally, and sailor dress-up day in honor of the Homecoming dance theme "Sailing." The Activities Board volunteered their help during Freshman Orientation and scramble. They also held numerous fundraisers to raise money for the A.S.B. The 1981-82 school year was enjoyable and successful because of the time and effort put into it by the Activities Board.

Life in the Spotlight

The dance department at Chaffey High School was headed by Marian Miller. Ms. Miller has been dancing since she was 7. She danced with San Diego State's dance company the past summer. One of the most influential people in her life was Gloria Newman, choreographer. Ms. Miller has been teaching at Chaffey for 23 years and enjoyed it becauses, "It is very exciting working with the students and seeing them grow." Ms. Miller wanted her students to enjoy dance, learn to be creative, express themselves to music and gain experience that they would always remember. This experience was gained by working on the exceptional stage in GWS auditorium for one week out of every month.

There were five dance classes offered at Chaffey, two intermediate classes were open to anyone who was interested in dance. An Intermediate-advanced class was offered for those students who had attended dance classes outside of Chaffey. These pupils who have completed at least one semester of intermediate may try out for the advanced class. The tryout consists of a one minute solo and then a promise from the dancer to perform in the November dance concert, the Holiday Fling, and the Spring recital. The production class has the same requirements, except more dedication was required of them, like afterschool rehearsals.

Through the course of the year, the dancers learned basic things: modern design, modern ballet, jazz rock, and choreography. The jazz rock was the most difficult and is the type of dance most students enjoy learning. "It was exciting and enabled us to learn more dance movements," stated dancer, Rose Olague.

The recital in spring was the big event for Ms. Miller's dancers. The money went toward new records, stero equipment and costumes. It also enabled Ms. Miller to hire a professional dancer to teach her class one day, and to take her students to the dance workshops at Cal State, Fullerton.

Every year, various industrial arts students get together to build a house. This was the eighth house that has been built by Chaffey's Building Construction class. Students from Mr. Hess's Advanced Architectural Drafting class designed the house. The students responsible for planning the drawings for the ROP house were seniors, Rick Williams, Vince Gomez, Bart Yoder, and Mark McDonald, Mr. Hess advised the students on the plans, and Mr. Herrera reviewed them to make sure they met all the limitations and restrictions of the house. For example, it was necessary to design a house to fit a long narrow plot of land. Mr. Hess stated, "More students should be involved in the exceptional drafting program this school has to offer because of the background it provides for students who wish to continue in a career of drafting."

The next step after the designing of the house was to begin constructing it. This was the job of Mr. Herrera's Building Construction class. His students worked for up to three hours a day building the house. The students did about 85% of the total construction of the house, which cost between $55,000 to $65,000 to build. The size of the house was 1,700 square feet. After the completion of the house, it was put up for sale to the public. Mr. Herrera and his building construction class proudly named the house.

Supervising the wiring of the house was Mr. Zmolek. His job was to instruct his students to perform all electrical jobs in wiring a house, which included garage, outdoor and patio wiring, installing light fixtures, and receptacle outlets. They also installed appliances, such as air conditioning and electric ranges. The class time involved in rough wiring was approximately 20 hours. Mr. Zmolek felt that electrical training was one of the most valuable asset to the construction industry. "I enjoyed working with students who will be well-qualified after completing the electrical training class," stated Mr. Zmolek.

The task of constructing and installing cabinets was skillfully completed by Mr. Bertucci's Advanced Cabinet Making class. As well as building eight cabinets for the ROP house, the students in the class made door jams, kitchen light frames, and wooden windowsills for the interior of the house. The Cabinet Making Class also built panels and benches for the improvement of their shop. Mr. Bertucci's outstanding students were Jeff Fritsch and William Bashor. "I was very proud of the quality and dedication my students showed in their work," stated Mr. Bertucci.

Life Down Under

They met in South Basement 9, during 5th and 6th periods and spent up to three hours working intensely and wearing their minds out. They were the Fasti staff, advised by Gary Simpson. Many hours were spent down under, cropping, copy fitting, drawing, writing, brainstorming, deciding, and talking. Throughout the year, they promised not to give out any information about the most prized possession any Chaffey student could own; the Fasti.

During the eight months of producing the Fasti, those dedicated students were constantly working on ideas to make the Fasti unique and different from the past yearbooks. They wrote copy (the article itself), took pictures, and organized them on quadpacks (layout forms where final draft of page is set). It sounds complicated, doesn't it? It was. They were also responsible for choosing the faculty member most worthy of the yearly Fasti dedication. After the completion of the Fasti, the staff got a moment of rest, but not for long. As soon as the finished copy was sent back to them, the Fasti staff prepared themselves for a few days of distributing them to the friendly, noncomplaining, softspoken students of Chaffey.

The Fasti staff's other duties included selling pictures at the annual picture sale, running a king and queen, and helping out at the food sales. The staff will always be proud to have been a part of the making of the Fasti.

Service Is Their Middle Name

Serving their school and community was the main purpose of the Chaffey Service League (CSL). They put on the Father-Daughter Banquet the Mother-Daughter Banquet, Welfare Week, and Backwards Week.

The theme of the Father-Daughter Banquet was, "A Trip Down Memory Lane." To honor the theme of the banquet, Technical Chairperson, Karen Farley, devised "The Most Memorable Photo" contest. Each girl attending the dinner was asked to submit a photo of her father and herself. The contest was won by Debi Manning and her father, Mike. Their photo captured the true meaning of a Father-Daughter relationship: the happiness and contentment of a father holding his baby daughter.

During Welfare Week, CSL members sold carnations, jingle bells, Christmas grams, and grab-bags during lunches as well as holding a canned good drive and the annual dutch auction. All of the week's proceeds went into the CSL Welfare Account, which was used to help the needy on campus and in the community.

Tiger pins, ponpoms, and #1 hands were just a few of the fundraising items the service leaguers sold throughout the year hoping to create school spirit and pride.

Making their mark as a unit of students who firmly supported what they believed in was the 1981-82 band. In the beginning of the school year, all of the band members were charged a $25.00 activities fee. Feeling that the fee was unfair, the band stepped forward to protest. They refused to pay because the money would not benefit them, instead it would go to other outlets.

The band was not allowed to play at the football games for refusing to pay. Students and faculty discovered how major a role the band's performance was. They brought excitement and music to sports events. The band stood alone as the only group out of five schools to protest the activities fee. They were strongly supported by friends, parents, and their fellow students. Their determination and pride will always be remembered by everyone. Jack Mercer, Chaffey's band director of 23 years stated, "I heartily congratulate students and parents of band and drill team for the magnificent manner in which they stood alone to defend their objection to an unjust activities fee."

Besides the action against the $25 fee, many other events occurred with the band. Although they were a band with very few musicians, they still accomplished very much. They participated in the Chaffey College Tournament of Bands, placing third, and they also held their own tournament. They performed at the third annual Tiger Paws Night Club, and at the Holiday Fling. The band managed to overlook their problems and have a proud and successful year.

Eloise Roybal became the honorable queen of the drill team. Band and drill team participants held an election to vote for their king and queen.

Swinging to the Big Band Sounds

The band's saxophone players play songs from the Big Band Era with energetic style.

Music, dancing, and a good time were all part of the festivities held at the third annual Tiger Paws Night Club. The festive occasion was held in the Chaffey High School Cafeteria. Former band members along with the recent group of musicians played music from the Big Band era. Other entertainment included singers, Danny Pore and Holland Vaughn, and musical group, The Night Blooming Jazzmen, led by Chet Jaeger. The musical revue was tied into Ontario's Centennial Celebration. Dressing up in costumes from the 1900's era was encouraged. Much celebrating went on and everyone who attended had a good old fashion time.

The Sound

There was an ominous feeling as the sound of silence prevailed over the football stadium. In protest to the district activity fee of $25.00, Chaffey's pep band refused to play. Over the summer, the district announced an activity fee of $25.00 for any person participating in an extracurricular activity. Instead of taking it in stride, the pep band, who felt that having to pay to play was unfair, went on a silent protest, refusing to play at games or rallies. "The strike gave us something to stand up and fight for," claimed Mary Cardas, one of two student leaders. Kim Flachs,a member of band, said, "It (the strike) had made me more involved with the band."

Mr. Mercer decided that the best compromise was to pay the activity fee out of the band's budget, and then sue the district to get it back. With that decision, the pep band was back in full force. Having them come back made everyone realize how much they added to our school spirit.

Looking into the future, there seems to be no problems, Monique Baca, co-student leader, believed, "The pep band could be better if we got more cooperation from the school." That doesn't bother members like Aaron Johnson who said, "I still want to be in the band." Drummer David Bowden holds one of the most optimistic views for the future. "Any organization that is held together by a strong spiritual union will not have any problems in the future."

Besides cutting the size of the drill eam, the strike also slowed verything down. "It's taking more me than ever to put things ogether," stated team member Tina Baty. Looking at the situation more positively is Nora Armbruster, who felt, "It's good we had a strike, because we weren't really ready." Captain Eloise Roybal asserted, "The strike slowed us down significantly. It also pulled our spirits down a bit, because we felt that the district didn't care."

With all of the problems and changes, our drill team proved that even though they were small, they had a lot of talent, pride, and determination.

"The Absence of a Cello" by Ira Wallach was performed by the 6th period Play Production students. It was a 2½ hour performance that ran for five nights. The students didn't expect to make any money, but due to the success of the play, they were able to put some money into the Drama Lab Fund.

The main character, Dr. Andrew Pilgrim, a famous physicist, had gone bankrupt. To get out of debt, he applied for a job at a large corporation. The play focused on Andrew's interview's with Otis Clifton, the corporations personnel man. Before the interviews, which are held in Andrew's home, he is coached by his daughter, Joanna, and her friend, Perry. They tried to help Andrew create the proper corporate image during the interviews. The theme ultimately dealt with people being true to themselves, as well as other people.

A Multitude of Talent

The theatrical talent of some of the students was evident in the second semester Play Production class. Headed by Nelson Palmer, the 5th period class performed four comedies and one dramatic skit for various classes. Three of the comedy skits were from The Good Doctor by Neil Simon.

"The Governess": A governess and her mistress played and intriguing game of cat and mouse as one by one, the rubles owed to the governess were sneakingly deducted from her month's pay. At the play's end, the audience was left to wonder which of the characters was the cat, and which the mouse.

"A Defenseless Creature": A wild woman goes to an old bank official for financial assistance. In comedic, slapstick style, the sickly man was reduced to desperation by the woman's ravings and gymnastic gestures. Finally, he was driven to conclude that the woman was an defenseless as a charging rhinoceros.

"The Audition": A naive country actress went to Moscow to audition for the great Anton Chekhov. At first, the famous playwright was cool toward the amateur, but when her audition revealed a genuine talent, Chekhov realized that he had misjudged her.

The fourth comedy skit was by Anton Chekhov. In "A Marriage Proposal", Lomow went to the home of his neighbor, Tschubukov, to propose marriage to Tschubukov's daughter, Natalie. Each time he was on the verge of popping the question, a violent argument broke out and the proposal was stalled. Finally, in the midst of passionate conflict and lunatic ravings, the engagement of the young couple was accomplished.

The only drama in the series of skits was by J. M. Glass. It was titled "Canadian Gothic." It dealt with the story of Jean, a young Canadian woman, her lover, Ben Redleaf, a Cree Indian. Her artistically inclined mother, and her father. The rigidity of the father in his personal relationships created the dramatic conflicts and lead to the ultimate tragedy for all of the characters.

We're Itty Bitty, Silly, Jolly

One of the highlights of class competition is "Spirit Nite" where the itty bitty freshmen, silly sophomores, jolly juniors, and mighty seniors all compete to see who can yell the loudest. It was the seniors who proved to have the superior vocal chords. Other events, such as a pyramid building competition, a mummy wrap, and whip cream on the head, were held throughout the year at rallies.

Each class received points based on how they did in competition. At the end of the year, the points were tallied, and the class with the most points was known as the "Class of the Year." The award for this was a banner, which was displayed in the cafeteria for the incoming year.

was not left out of the fun either. They did everything from the seriousness of two Bach numbers, to the fantasy of a "Christmas Dream." They added a touch of excitement and quality to the Holiday Fling.

Adding comedy to this gala event was Nelson Palmer's play production class. With the skit of "Snow White and the Four Dwarfs," they were the hit of the show. Perhaps the most convincing character was Sharon Pula as the wicked queen. A close second was Kathy Spinelli as the virtuous Snow White. 1982 was the year of the Twelfth Biennial Faculty show entitled "Review Revue." The program featured many of Chaffey's faculty and staff members reminiscing the 70 years of our school in various numbers, ranging from the outragious Mike Arenas and Ken Porter skit of "Teach em Wrong," to the semi-seriousness of the Barbershop Quartet. They did it not only to have a great time entertaining large audiences, but also to raise money for college scholarships for worthy students. Over the years, the faculty members have raised over $15,000. The coordinator of "Review Revue" was Chet Jaeger who organized for the past twelve years, and supplied musical entertainment with his jazz band, The Nightblooming Jazzmen. Other staff members who were not in the show helped out by selling tickets, designing props, advertising the program, and doing other necessary tasks. All of the staff brought humor and music to the GWS stage to make the 12th annual faculty show a memorable experience.

Mr. Jaeger and his band give the parents a swingin, 'ol' time at the Tiger Paws.

Mr. Chet Jaeger has been one of Chaffey's math instructors for the past thirty years. Aside from his teaching position, Mr. Jaeger is actively involved in the school's biennial Faculty Show, and has been its producer for the past twenty-four years. Along with teaching, Mr. Jaeger has formed his own band, known as The Original Nightblooming Jazzmen. The goup has been playing together for seven years. They have performed for a variety of events, ranging from benefit shows and telethons, to weddings and funerals. Mr. Jaeger and his band have also participated in Chaffey's own Tiger Paws Nightclub Show. Having such an excellent teacher and musician at Chaffey, we are very proud to have Mr. Jaeger as part of Chaffey's faculty.

Mr. Bertucci gives out the instructions for the day.

Mr. Bertucci is actively involved in Chaffey's Industrial Education Department. Upon obtaining his degree from Cal State Long Beach, Mr. Bertucci was hired as Chaffey's woodshop instructor. He teaches beginning and advanced woodshop, and the R.O.P. cabinetmaking class.

Mr. Bertucci is the advisor of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America for the Chaffey Chapter. The club has been designed to enhance leadership within the students and to allow them to compete for awards in industrial areas. With five years of experience behind him, Mr. Bertucci commented, "Through teaching here at Chaffey, I'd like to be a positive influence to as many students as I can."

"Great Scots," exclaims Miss Crawford.

Chaffey High School was very fortunate to have Miss Crawford, a foreign exchange teacher from Scotland, as a member of its English Department. Miss Crawford obtained her teaching credentials from Glasgow University in Scotland, and has been teaching for six years. Upon arriving in California, she was amazed at the friendly atmosphere of the citizens of Ontario. She was surprized by Chaffey's activity involvement and school spirit. Miss Crawford enjoyed attending her first high school football game, as they do not have football or cheerleaders in Scotland. In commenting on her stay in California, Miss Crawford stated, "I'm quite impressed by the school, the English Department, and apart from the smog, I like everything."

Mr. Stark explains the necessity of team spirit at the rally.

Chaffey was very fortunate to have a man so dedicated to his work. Mr. Ray Stark, the head football coach for over 25 years, has enjoyed his time spent with Chaffey students.

He began teaching at Chaffey in 1953 as an Industrial Education instructor and as a coach for the football team. During Mr. Stark's teaching career, he has coached at La Verne College and Mt. Sac College. Through coaching at Chaffey, Mr. Stark has had many experiences. He has had a chance to meet a variety of students. During that time, he has coached two players that were selected on the All-American Team. There have been three former players that have played on professional football teams, John Keyworth, Anthony Munoz, and Steve Young.

Mr. Stark stated, "I would not change anything in my career, but in the future, I would like to see more students involved in sports and activities."

One-two-three, one-two-three, one-two-three . . . "Tiny Bubbles . . ."

Peering through the thick fog on a chilly September morning was the devotion of our friendly band director, Mr. Jack Mercer. He first showed an interest in music with his bugle performance at the age of five. Since that memorable moment, Mr. Mercer was encouraged to continue studying music. He studied music at Northwestern University and graduated with a degree in music education.

Mr. Mercer began his teaching career in 1943 at Lalmoni, Iowa, then came to Chaffey in 1958. Since then, the Chaffey Marching Band has performed at a variety of events such as, the first Super Bowl held in Los Angeles, tournaments and parades, as well as cruises to the Carribean. Mr. Mercer has also conducted the bands for the school musical. Looking back at his years at Chaffey, Mr. Mercer stated, "Years change, but the excitement and stimulation of high school men and women continue year after year."

Chaffey High Schoo

Since its construction in 1918, Chaffey's history of principals has been few. There have only been 5 previous principals with Dr. Adams making the 6th, this being his 10th year here. With 36 years in the education field, Dr. Adams has touched the lives of many students. Upon his arrival in California 28 years ago, Dr. Adams has taken the position of principal at various high schools throughout the state.

Dr. Adams is very dedicated to the school. As advisor to the senior class, he has done an exceptionally good job supervising their activities. Reminiscing on the previous years spent at Chaffey, Dr. Adams expressed his thoughts, "Chaffey High School is the greatest challenge and the most rewarding experience of my professional career. I love this school."

Dr. Fred Adams
Principal ▲

Glen Fisher
Assistant Principal ▲

In good and bad times alike, there is one man at this school who has always carried the Chaffey spirit through. He has been at Chaffey since 1950, making this his 31st year, 14 of which he has been our Assistant Principal. In the coming year, he will be principal of Upland High School.

"I think my most memorable moment was when I received the "Teacher of the Year" award in 1967. To me, this is the highest award that students can bestow on a person. Chaffey is without a doubt, the best school of any I could choose. Over the years, I have experienced much joy from working with my associates. I love this school and the people in it. I have never regretted a single day and Chaffey will always be nearest to my heart."

Dr. Adams and his secretary, Linda Moser, enjoy a good joke. ▲

"You surely can't be serious?" questions Ron Eckert. ▲

Administrative Staff

Norman Woods
Assistant Principal

Although Norman Woods has only been with Chaffey for 2 years, he has done an exceptionally good job as Assistant Principal of Pupil Personnel. Mr. Woods has been transfered to Ontario High School as the Assistant Principal for the upcoming year.

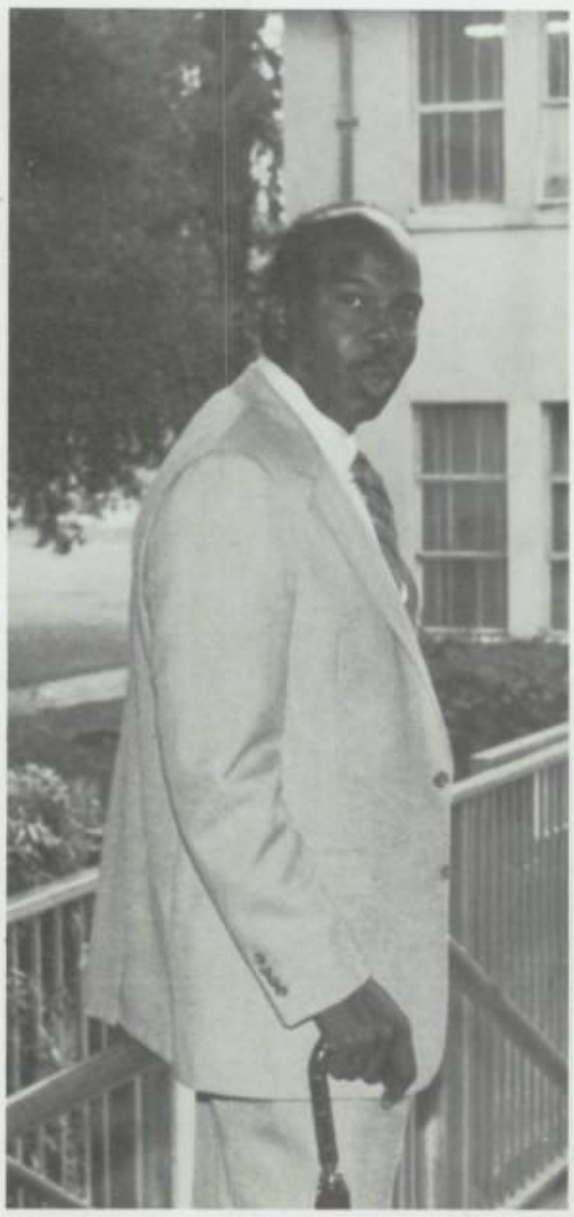
"I have received so much cooperation and support from everyone, the students, staff, and administration. Everyday here has been great, with such warm and friendly students. I have enjoyed working with the Junior class. They are a neat group of people and are my pride and joy. I have had a very good stay here at Chaffey. I don't feel that I could have been a success without everyone's help. All of you are just super!"

Keeping things in order is Dr. Fred Adams.

Ron Eckert
Assistant Principal

Ron Eckert has done a great deal for this school. He has been with the Chaffey District for the past 20 years, holding such positions as classroom teacher, department chairperson, and an administrator of the school. Receiving the 1976 Fasti dedication, and working as the advisor for the class of 1985, have only been a few highlights of Ron Eckert's years at Chaffey.

"I love Chaffey. These have been fantastic years in my life working with young people in the classroom, in activities, and by offering guidance to them. Chaffey has a wonderful history and tradition that I am proud to be a part of. I hope all Chaffey graduates will retain that pride throughout their lives."



"Oh my, I believe I'm going to get wet!" exclaims Norman Woods.

"Don't peek!" requests Adele.

"What do you think of my new hat?" asks Glen Fisher.

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;
Then took the other; as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted
wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,
And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.
I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

— Robert Frost
